As we understand the objections mentioned in your letter to Judge Dey, dated March 20, 1905, they are founded upon the assumption that the city might "not succeed in carrying out the plan proposed in regard to the purchase of water rights, etc." We have endeavored to show how the city can and will carry out the proposed plan. It is entirely feasible and will be carried out in every essential particular. This being so, there would seem to be no necessity for the test case which you suggest in your letter. However, the only objection the city has to having such a case made is the delay that will necessarily result therefrom, and if you insist upon having our supreme court pass upon the validay of the proposed bond issue, such a case will be instituted and prosecuted to final cetermination as soon as practicable. Before doing so however, it is
